

“United in Hope”

Young Artists & Authors Showcase

Proudly presented by Scottsdale Sister Cities Association

In partnership with Scottsdale Arts Learning & Innovation
Scottsdale Artists' School

Scottsdale Arts Learning & Innovation

High-quality exhibitions, programs and events that foster dialogue, promote empathy, invoke wonder and build interpersonal connections

April 16 - June 20
ArtReach Space-Scottsdale
Center for Performing Arts
7380 East Second Street
Scottsdale, AZ 85251
480.499.8587

Fine Art
Classes &
Workshops for Artists of All
Skill Levels
& Ages

“I Hope” by Brynley McAndrews

Saguaro High School

1st Place Winner

Advances to Sister Cities
International Competition

“One World United”

by Iliana Mendez

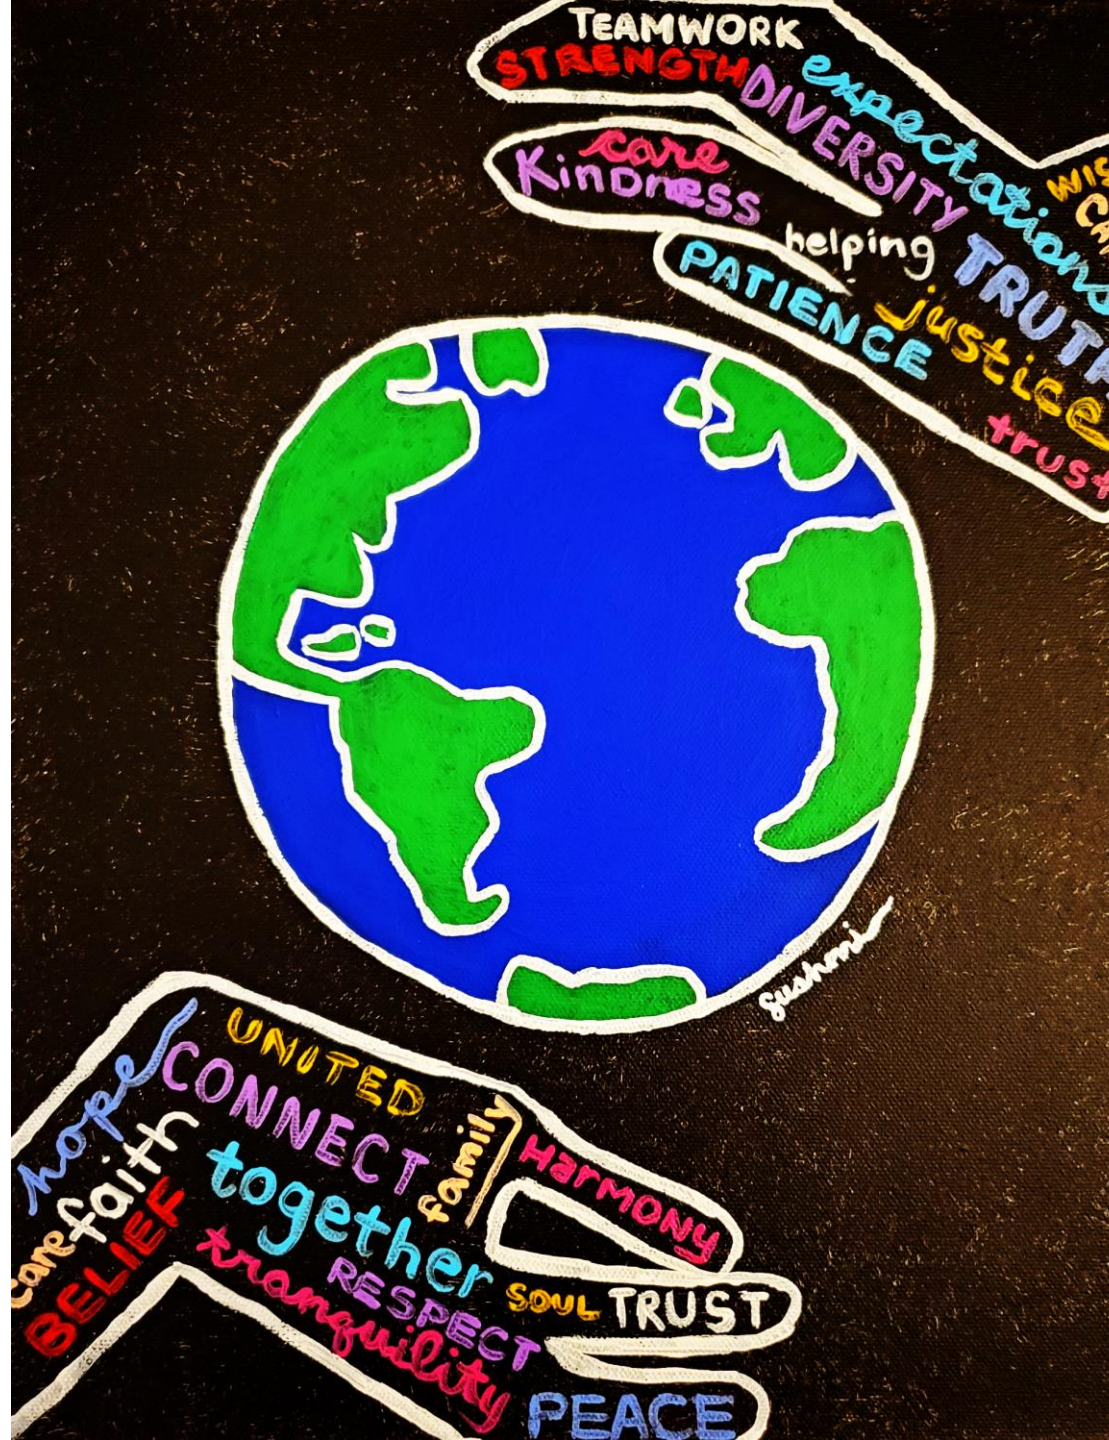

Cicero Prep

2nd Place Winner

Advances to Sister
Cities International Competition

"Holding Us Together"

3rd Place
Winner

by Sushmita
Marella

“See & Understand”

by Brooklyn Fallon

4th Place Winner

“Positivity Within”

by Norielle Abts

Saguaro High School

5th Place Winner

Welcome Ms. Michelle Peacock

Saguaro High School Art Teacher

Scottsdale Sister Cities Partner in Art

Comments from Young Artist Award Winners

Suzie Austin

YOUNG AUTHOR AWARDS

“Connecting Isolated Pawns ”

by Jack Swenson

“My hope for the future is that people all over the world will strive to become connected pawns, rather than to divide like isolated pawns.”

1st Place Winner

*Advances to Sister Cities International Competition

“Rain Cleanse” by Ava Claire Lariago

“Drip, drop, drip
I focus on the skies in higher definition.
Knowing spring has heard my hopes,
I welcome this rain cleanse.”

2nd Place Winner

*Advances to Sister Cities International Competition

Comments from Young Author Award Winners

Max E. Rumbaugh Jr.

INTERNATIONAL YOUTH AWARDS

Marrakech Youth Essays

“United Hope” by Hala Chaibi

Marrakech Young Essay Author

“Despite all the negative things that we have faced because of this virus, we must have learned that we all share the same sky, we need to be together to shine, we need to show people that we are always united in hope.”

1st Place Winner

“United in Hope” by Ahmed Elyassini

Marrakech Young Essay Author

“We stood up for this... As one community... One body...
One threatened being... And we won!”

2nd Place Winner

“Life in Pink” by Lakhdim Khaoula

Marrakech Young Essay Author

“They will enjoy hearing how humans proved to be the strongest and the bravest creatures in the world. And we will be so proud of being part of this adventure.”

3rd Place Winner

“Voice” by Radia El Badouri

Marrakech Young Essay Author

“When we are young we have so much creativity, energy, and most of the time we see the world fresh and new with a lot of hope, which made us always come up with a solution to our hardest problems.”

Honorable Mention Winner

Comments from Young Author Marrakech Award Winners

Max E. Rumbaugh Jr.

INTERNATIONAL YOUTH AWARDS

Alamos Youth Art

Alamos
Young Artist

1st Place
Winner

by Sandra
Vega Tamos

“Muy Bonitas Amistades”
(Very Good Friendships)

“Hemos Sido Iluminados ” (We have been Enlightened)

by
Nuvia Betzaly Reyes Antelo

Alamos Young Artist

2nd Place Winner

Alamos
Young Artist

3rd Place
Winner

by Rommel
Yeoshua
Martínez
Murrieta

"La Esperanza" (Hope)

Comments from Young Author Alamos Award Winners

Ceremony Closing Scottsdale Sister Cities President Donna Hartz

